Don't Leave the Farm.

BY CLARA F. BERRY. Come, boys, I have something to tell you, Come near, I would whisper it low -

You are thinking of leaving the homestead, Dan't be in a harry to go.

The city has many attractions, But think of the vices and sins, When once in the vortex of fashion, How soon the course downward begins.

You talk of the mines of Australia. They're wealthy in gold, without doubt. But ah ! there is gold on the farm, boys,

If only you'll shovel it out. The mercantile life is a bazard, The goods are first high and then low, Better risk the old farm awhile longer, Don't be in a karry to go !

The great busy West has inducements, And so has the busiest mart, But wealth is not made in a day, boys, Don't be in a harry to start! The bankers and brokers are wealthy, They take in their thousands or so,

Ah! think of the frauds and deceptions, Dan't be in a hurry to go! The form is the safest and surest, The orchards are loaded to-day, You're free as the air of the mountains,

Aml monarch of all you survey. Better stay on the farm awhile longer, Though profits come in rather slow, Remember you've nothing to risk, boys, Don't be in a hurry to go!
